Road Description

Breakfast in the hotel. Early after breakfast we initiate our expedition with our 4x4 units to the city of Tarma. On route you will enjoy most beautiful landscapes, starting basically from the coast up to the highlands. After 3 hrs drive we will reach Ticlio which represents the highest point of our journey 4,818 m.a.s.l. We continue our journey until arriving La Oroya known as the metallurgic capital of Peru and South America. We continue our journey until arriving in Tarma city. Before arriving in Tarma you will be able to observe flower plantations on the roadside, which will give you a very colourful view of the journey. Tarma is also known as the pearl of the Andes. Check inn at the hotel. We recommend a very light dinner and overnight. (B)

Note: we recommend you take with you a Box Lunch (Not included in the price, you can request this at the hotel before departing).

Day 03 Tarma (3,050 msnm)

After breakfast, we will visit the main square of Tarma and the most important attractions of the city. We will also visit the Sanctuary of the Lord of Muruhuay from where you can observe the image of Christ, crucified and painted by the devotees in 1835, this image appeared on a top of a hillside. In this very place where Christ was observed a
